DR. R. V. PRINCE, Ruffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sir:—My wife had suffered with "female weaknesses" for nearly three years. At times she could hardly move, she had such dragging pains. We often saw your "Favorite Prescription" advertised, but supposed like most patent medicines it did not amount to anything, but at last concluded to try a bottle, which she did. It made her sick at first, but it began to show its effect in a marked improvement, and two bottles cured her. Yours, etc., A. J. HUYCK, Deposit, N. Y.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The sentence upon Louise Michel of six years' imprisonment, and ten years' police supervision by a French court, is a strong proof in itself of the weakness of the French Government. The San Francisco Post thinks the place for Louise is a lunatic asylum. To treat her as a first-class revolutionary leader was simply absurd. The Republican authorities in France may go a step too far in their policy of turning French prisons into a species of Siberia, to which all political malcontents are consigned. The permanence of a republican form of government can never be insured in that way.

In Mr. Lincoln's absence during the past fortnight, writes a Washington correspondent, General Sherman has been acting Secretary of War. A day or two ago a friend asked Sherman how he was getting on. "Oh," said General Sherman, quick as lightning, "I am getting along splendidly. I am now acting Secretary of War, and for the first time since I came to Washington there is a perfect harmony between the General of the Army and the Secretary of War."

The combined efforts of four policemen were required to carry into the House of Commons, on April 10th, the petition in favor of closing public houses on Sunday—one of the largest documents of the kind ever presented to Parliament. It contained 500,332 signatures upon a continuous roll of paper, which was 4,832 yards long and weighed 350 pounds.

The troubles in Europe are forcing millions and tens of millions of English capital into this country and Mexico. The rage for purchasing cattle ranches and cattle seems to have become almost a passion with English and Scotch capitalists. It is said that $200,000,000 have been invested in that kind of property within the past eighteen months.

Selling oleomargarine is a misdemeanor in Missouri, and the United States Court, after listening to an argument from Roscoe Conkling against the law, has refused to interfere with the decision of the State Courts by which penalties were inflicted on an agent of an oleomargarine manufacturing concern.

Last year over 253,000 pounds of ostrich feathers were sent to England from Capitou, the value of the feathers being over $5,400,000. It is said the total is seven-fold what the total was ten years ago.

More Atlantic Steamers.

New York, June 26.

The Red Star Line Steamship Company, plying between New York and Antwerp, and Philadelphia and Antwerp, is building two new vessels—the Western Land and Moorland, each of 5,500 tons register, to accommodate the rapidly increasing passenger travel.

These ships will be equal, at least in speed and comfort, to the best ships afloat. The fleet now consists of eight vessels.

A Heavy Failure.

Chicago, June 26.

The failure of McGroch & Everingham, lard dealers, grows worse and worse as the actual state of affairs are developed. The liabilities were at first put at $1,000,000, then $2,500,000. Two days ago J. R. Benesley, the receiver of the firm, said the liabilities would exceed $6,000,000. About $4,000,000 are due to Chicago banks, which are secured by lard as collateral. Mr. Rensley says the assets are only $50,000 and office fixtures.

PRESS DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.

GENERAL SHERMAN.

The Hero of the Atlanta Campaign Growing Tired of Society and Catholicism.

WASHINGTON, June 26.

It is stated that General Sherman is a very unhappy man. A high army officer, who knows him well, declares he is not what he seems in his bluff and hearty interview. In the first position, he really hates to give up his position at the head of the army, as it has been his sole occupation against melancholy or bitter domestic disappointments. He is the very life of certain Washington circles, and has always been the hero of social festivities all over the country. It is true that he is tired of Washington, and that he is anxious to go to St. Louis, and, soldier-like, he puts a good face on the matter, but this bluntness does not conceal from his friends the deep seated chagrin that is upon him.

He was greatly disappointed when his son joined the Jesuits. Mrs. Sherman is a woman who has the most personal ambition for advancement. In her church she is one of its most active agents and is in correspondence with the authorities at Rome. General Sherman made a struggle to remain in Washington after his retirement from the army, but Mrs. Sherman was determined to go to St. Louis, where the Catholic Church has a wide and powerful field, in which she could have a more influential and leading position. Among the last days of his stay in Washington the General has been seen walking, with his hat slouched carelessly over his eyes. His figure, which has always been so erect, has, within the last six months, learned to stoop.

Those who have approached him with the idea of his being gloomy have always been repelled with some rattling bit of brilliant chaff, indicative of the highest spirits. When he is settled in St. Louis, Mrs. Sherman believes, that she, with him away from the frivolities of this life, can get him to find salvation in the Holy Catholic Church. The General is growing old. In the dull regions of St. Louis he may fall a prey to his wife's persistence, and, for the sake of peace, go through the form of joining the church. Up to the present time Sherman has got along without any religion, whatever he said recently: "I do not think I need any priest's crutch with which to hobble the rest of the way to my grave, but I can't tell what may happen in the future." He is now off on his last free play spell, and it is to be hoped he will have a good time in this the last round of his military presence is required.

He decides that vessels from Portland and San Francisco must enter and clear at Sitka.

Another Halters Needed.

LITTLE MISSOURI, June 26.

COUNT DEMORES, one of the largest cattle and sheep ranchers in the West, had a difficulty with an outlaw named O'Donnell, the leader of a band of desperadoes. Last night Count's house was surrounded and his life threatened. The Sheriff has left with a posse for the scene of the trouble. O'Donnell says he will kill Count on sight.

Big Fire at New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, June 26.

The Planters Cotton Seed Oil Works in Algiers were struck by lightning this evening and entirely destroyed. This was the largest cotton seed oil mill in the world. The loss is roughly estimated at $1,000,000, including the building, stock and machinery. It is said to be fully insured. Several cottages adjoining the works were destroyed. Five firemen were slightly scalded by the explosion of a tank.

An Apparent Vindication.

LONDON, June 26.

A development of further scandals at the trial at Nyerreghazza of the Jews charged with murdering a Christian girl, has given rise to a belief that the prosecution will be abandoned. Several Jewish witnesses for the defense claimed they had either been threatened at the preliminary inquiry, or statements they had never made had been inserted in their depositions. It was further elicited that the girl, said to have been murdered, had quarreled with her mistress shortly before she disappeared, and that friends of the girl, when they missed her, had an idea that she might have committed suicide. The employer of the sister of Esther Salomawy, the dead girl, testified he met Esther an hour after the alleged murder.

Off for Lady Franklin Bay—Six Men Drowned.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., June 26.

The Arctic expedition ship Proteus is preparing for a voyage to Lady Franklin Bay. She will probably leave Thursday. The steamer Yacht, United States Navy, is waiting here to accompany the Proteus to Smith's Sound.

A frightful accident occurred at Trepasy last evening. A large fishing boat went down, and six men were drowned. But one of the crew of seven was saved. It is supposed the boat was overloaded.

Conflicting Opinions.

HONG KONG, June 26.

The hostile Annamites are entrenched fifty miles from Hanoi, and are well armed and confident. It is believed the French will make an attack as soon as they receive reinforcements.

LONDON, June 26.

The opinion is growing among the London papers and in European centers, that the difficulty between France and China will be settled amicably.

Not Yet Pardon.

LONDON, June 26.

In the House of Commons this afternoon, Foster, Attorney General for Ireland, had not yet been pardoned, but that the subject was being considered by the government. If Corey should be pardoned, he said, executive clemency will be coupled with conditions.

They Were at Home—A Bride Killed in a Collision.

LOS ANGELES, June 26.

About 2 o'clock this afternoon Henry King, Chief of Police, went to the office of Mayor Horace Bell, editor of the Porcupine, and opening the door, he fired at Bell, who was sitting with his leg over a chair. Bell sprang to his feet and grappled with his assailant and threw him. Bell's son rushed from the composing-room with a heavy mallet and struck King repeatedly on the head, bruising him badly, although not seriously injuring him. Constable Griffin separated the combatants. The difficulty grew out of articles in the Porcupine arraigning King's official integrity. Some days ago Chief King brought suit against Bell for criminal libel, and the case was to have been heard to-morrow in the Superior Court.

The emigrant train which left Los Angeles at 8:45 this morning, for the north, arrived at Bakersfield little late.

At noon, while coaling, a light engine, from Los Angeles to Mojave, dashed into the caboose, telescoping the caboose and hind emigrant car. At Newhall Mr. and Mrs. Beiger, a newly-married pair, had got on. Mrs. Beiger was so badly injured that she died shortly afterwards, while her husband was less seriously injured. Two other passengers were injured.

A special venire of jurors to serve during the balance of the April term of the District Court, was drawn yesterday.

A. Clark is daily receiving new goods and is selling them at prices lower than ever before. No merchant in the State carries a better stock. Canned goods a specialty.

The dry goods store of Levy & Bro. continues to be daily thronged by a good and paying class of customers who find their prices so low that no haggling about the cost is ever heard.

A. Lindley & Co. seem to be doing nine-tenths of the grocery business done in the county. They are constantly shipping large quantities of goods and receiving car load lots every day.

Louis Abrams returned this morning from below, where he purchased the most extensive and varied stock of clothing and gents' and boys' general furnishing goods ever brought into the State.

W. R. Chamberlain intends to make the Depot Hotel more beautiful than ever by fixing the dining room windows with "glazing ornamentation," something new in the way of ornamentation, and very cheap.

All those, whether newly married or not, who wish to fit up a kitchen in first-class style, can only do so by calling upon Knowles & Bainbridge, on Commercial Row, who are dealers in hardware, crockery, stoves, ranges and tinware.

All who, during these warm days, feel the need of something soothing, cooling, and which will not intoxicate, can find just what they are looking for in Jake Becker's Fredericksburg beer, with a square meal thrown in.

John Sunderland carries the finest stock of hats to be found in the State. It is said that Lieutenant-Governor Laughton purchased his high silk hat of Sunderland. The hat in question gives Gov. Laughton a very dignified appearance.

Charley Moeller, the urbane and most popular landlord Steamboat Springs has ever had, is making the most complete arrangements for the comfort, pleasure and general welfare of all who will be in attendance at the Sunday-school picnic on Saturday next.

The crowd of buggies and farm wagons in front of J. K. Everett's store, corner of Sierras and Second streets, on Saturday, was at first thought to be a funeral procession, but when it was discovered that the carriages were empty and the occupants in the stove paying cash for the best groceries in town, the mystery was solved.

The question is often asked, "Why do Nevada beer vendors continue to patronize breweries outside of the State, so long as George Becker of the Pacific Brewery is manufacturing an article inferior to none on the coast?" All having any doubts as to the excellence of Mr. Becker's brew can easily be undeceived by calling at the Granary saloon on Commercial Row.

PERSONALS.

J. Griffin of Humboldt county is at the Palace.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Levy left this morning for their home at Quincy.

Rev. A. B. Palmer, pastor of the Congregational Church, accompanied by his son, will leave to-day on his Summer vacation.

Dan O'Keefe, who was reported recently as having been shot, and generally cut up with a pair of sheep-shears, near Battle Mountain, turned up last evening, showing no signs of physical disfigurement.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Frank L. Miller Killed in the Bodie Mine.

Frank L. Miller, a miner at work in the Bodie mine, received fatal injuries Saturday afternoon. The Bodie Free Press says he went to work at 5 o'clock in a stope on the 700-foot level. This stope is about 44 feet in length, and the face is approached by an almost perpendicular ladder. It is not known how Miller happened to fall, but he evidently lost his footing while at work in the head. No one was close to him at the time. The accident occurred about 5:30. Men not far distant heard the noise of the falling, and upon investigation found the unfortunate man at the bottom. There was a frightful wound in the head and one of the eyes protruded from the socket. He lived until 7 o'clock and then expired.

The deceased was about 40 years of age and was an old resident of this coast.

The Mill City Reduction Works. Leete and Gould are pushing their reduction works at Mill City, and will soon have the machinery ready to run. The works will be of great benefit to Humboldt county, and encourage prospecting, something that has been neglected for years in Nevada.

A DAY IN LASSEN.

Interesting Points in and Around Susanville.

One of the prettiest and busiest mountain towns in California is our neighbor, Susanville. It has one firm, (Blum & Alexander), that, it is claimed, does the largest business east of the mountains. They carry an immense stock of goods. Susanville is a town of homes, where almost every man owns his house and lot, and keeps up a constant effort to improve and beautify them. Every kind of fruit and berry grows in good quality, although the apple is the best crop. The orchards almost hide the town, which is located on a sun-slope of the foot of the pine-clad mountain, that could otherwise be seen for several miles. A. T. Arnold has several good orchards, and others are owned by McClellan, Stiles, McKane, Smith, Hamsin and Schubert. Fred Hines and other farmers below them have tried to raise fruit but failed. They think the water comes too near the surface of the ground. Dave Peyster and brother run the famous old hotel that their parents have given such a reputation to, in years past. Mr. Peyster now has a small store next door. Dr. Z. N. Spaulding and R. F. Moody dispense drugs and medicines. The latter's sage brush liniment is getting a reputation. Mrs. Jones, Miss Harvey and Miss Dressler keep millinery stores. Grass and Clark are the livery men. Cohen Brothers, Green and Asher, M. Nathan and T. B. Sanders have stores, large and small, and A. Otto has a fine wagon and blacksmith shop. McKinney and Hayden, formerly of the Reno GAZETTE, run the Advocate and make it very acceptable to the people of the country. There are two saw mills in the neighborhood where lumber can be got for eight and ten dollars. The county seems to be well offereed. Hon. J. M. Hendricks, the Superior Judge, learned law in a good school and is a very bright man. W. T. Maston is Clerk, Auditor and Recorder; J. M. Leakey, Sheriff; Mr. Shum Attorney; E. A. Williams School Superintendent; D. C. Hyer Treasurer. The United States has a land office there, with F. H. Merritt as Register.

THE TOWN WAS NAMED

Susanville in honor of Susan Ingall Roop, daughter of Isaac N. Roop, who was Provisional Governor of the Territory of Nevada in 1858 and 1859. The lady is still a resident of Susanville, and was interviewed by a GAZETTE reporter last week. She is the wife of A. T. Arnold, one of Lassen's most respected citizens. They have five children, ranging from 5 to 16 years of age. Governor Roop was a native of Maryland, but his parents moved to Ashland, Ohio, when he was young, where he has a brother living now. Mr. Arnold was born there, but came to Susanville 20 years ago. Governor Roop came in 1853, and in 1854 built the first house that was ever put up in Lassen county. It is still standing in Mr. Arnold's orchard, a solid, double-log house. It was used as a fort by the Susanville party during the Plumas war. He died at 47 years of age and is buried in Susanville. Governor Roop was a man of fine appearance, with heavy, brown hair and a strong and handsome face. He was a lawyer by profession, and represented Susanville in the Nevada Legislature, before the State line was located.

WASHOE CHEESE.

The Big Presses at Ophir Ready For a Squeeze.

Theodore Winters went to Ophir yesterday to start up his cheese factory. He would have been making cheese three weeks ago, but the screws for the presses were not ready. He took them over with him. He has six presses and 250 gallons of whey. He can make over 40 pounds of cheese a day. He will begin with 110 cows, and if everything goes nice he will buy all the milk in the neighborhood, and make 1,000 or 1,200 pounds a day.

He heats the vats with steam from a steam boiler. He is using the old Ophir office, 60 feet square, for a cheese house. It has stone walls 23 feet thick and will make a nice, cool place. The old residence will be used for the vat and press house. If this is a success it will be a fine thing for Washoe valley.

HIGGINS' EXCURSION.

A Chance for Reno People to Have a Delightful Fourth of July.

H. W. Higgins' Fourth of July excursion to Lake Tahoe promises to be a great success. The fare for the round trip, via Truckee, including a trip around the lake, will be about $8. The train will leave Reno about 8 o'clock on the morning of the Fourth, and return on the evening of the 5th. Mr. Higgins wishes all who intend going to hand in their names as soon as possible, in order to give him time to arrange transportation from Truckee to Tahoe. It will be a cheap trip, and one highly enjoyable. Reno people can have a glorious time by going, and it is as cheap a way of spending the Fourth as one could wish.

A NEAT DEVICE.

J. H. Harcourt, agent at Franktown, has added a handsome hot house to his office. Large double glass doors open directly into it. He has an electrical alarm to notify him of any change of temperature, which is worth patenting.

The effect of heat and cold is exactly opposite on steel and brass. He uses this principle by putting a thin strip of brass and one of steel half an inch wide and 14 inches long together and fastening them in the circuit at one end, leaving the other near a point in the circuit. When it gets hot the brass contracts and the steel expands, bending the strips over so it touches the point and rings the bell.

A WELL-PLEASSED RELATIVE.

Undertaker Sanders received the following letter this morning:

RICHMOND, Va., June 18.
Mr. W. Sanders: Dear Sir—As you requested I now write to tell you how the body of my aunt bore the trip. It arrived in Gettysburg last Thursday evening and we had the funeral from the depot. On opening the glass we found everything had carried first-class. My father and all friends are much pleased with your work, and I assure you I do not think it could have been done better. Yours truly,
J. C. MILLER.

ANOTHER HUMBOLDT DAM GONE.

The GAZETTE learns from E. C. Asher, who came in from Lovelock last evening, that after about one-half of the piles had been driven for the new dam the whole structure was again carried away. The 800-pound cast-iron hammer, used for driving piles, was also lost. Mr. Asher was interviewing Fraser, the foundryman, this morning relative to the reproduction of another hammer. This is the fourth dam which has been lost at or near the same place within 60 days.

MERENADES.

The Reno band complimented Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Levy (nee Miss Leah Fredrick) by serenading them at the residence of the bride's parents on West street. The serenaders were invited in and handsomely entertained by the family.

FROM THE SHEEP CAMPS.

Humboldt County's Wool Crop the Largest Ever Known.

Dan O'Keefe returned from Stone House last night, where he has just completed the contract of shearing 5,800 head of sheep for Tom Nelson. O'Keefe says Nelson has the finest flock of sheep in the state, and that the wool shipment from Humboldt county this year will be heavier than ever known. The dep't building at Winnemucca is piled full of bales now awaiting shipment. It has all been pressed and will be shipped to eastern markets.

Dan says business is good and wages high. The farmers of Paradise are paying from $2 to $2.50 per day for harvest hands and are having difficulty in getting them at that price.

RAILROAD MEN TO BE UNIFORMED.

It is reported that railroad men on the C. P. R. R. will shortly be uniformed, as they are on many of the eastern roads. Conductors and brakemen will be distinguished from engineers and firemen by different colored stripes on their uniforms.

FRUIT AND BERRIES FOR THE SOUTHERN COUNTRY.

The amount of fruit and berries being daily sent south from here by Wells, Fargo & Co., indicates either a plenty of coin or a strained credit on the part of the consignees.

RENO GUARD.

The Reno Guard had a meeting last evening, relative to the proposed trip to Virginia City on the Fourth. A respectable number voted to accept the proposed hospitality of their comrades in arms on the Comstock.

A CHINAMAN SHOT.

The Enterprise says a Chinaman was mysteriously shot in Virginia this morning. The bullet entered the right breast above the nipple glancing around the ribs and passing out at the back.

GRATEFUL BOYS.

The members of Hose Company No. 2 received their new caps last night, and they desire, through the columns of the GAZETTE, to thank A. K. Lamb for his successful work in collecting the necessary funds.

HOME FROM THE PICNIC.

S. W. Clifford was tried in Carson yesterday for an assault, in beating James O'Brien over the head with a six-shooter at the picnic Sunday. The jury failed to agree. Clifford returned to Reno last night.
